

Sunday Women's AA Mtg via Zoom

1. While people are gathering, ask for volunteers to read the Preamble, How It Works, the Traditions, and a Vision for You. These are all posted on our website if no one has them easily available.
2. Welcome to our Sunday night women's meeting. My name is _____, and I am an alcoholic. This is an open, English-speaking meeting, and all are welcome. Please take a moment to mute your microphone. Later, please unmute yourself if you are reading or sharing. After reading or sharing, please mute yourself again. This way, everyone can hear.
3. Let us open this meeting with a moment of silence, and then please join me in the serenity prayer.
4. We ask if you have consumed alcohol during the last 24 hours that you listen to tonight and talk to one of us after the meeting.
5. Is there anyone here for their very first AA meeting? (If there is a newcomer, the chair welcomes the person, and we read the First Step in 12 x 12)
6. Is there anyone here in their first 30 days of sobriety? If so, please introduce yourself by your first name only. We ask this not to embarrass you but so that we may get to know you better.
7. Are there any AA birthdays? (If there is an AA birthday, the chair can ask them to share a little about how they did it after the readings)
8. Are there any AA announcements?
9. May I have a volunteer to lead this meeting next week? Our meeting script is on our website – aameridamexico.com.
10. I have asked _____ to please read our Preamble.
11. I have asked _____ to please read How It Works.

12. I have asked _____ to please read the Traditions
13. Please remember to respect the anonymity of each member present, and we request that participants confine their discussion to matters pertaining to recovery from alcoholism.
14. We ask that members do not interrupt or crosstalk while someone is sharing during the meeting.
15. Ask someone who is having a birthday to share here for a few minutes.
16. In this meeting, our speaker chooses a topic from our literature and shares. Then, she picks a woman to share next.
17. When there are 15 minutes left to share: Our 7th tradition states that every A.A. group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions. If you are in Merida, you can contribute anytime we pass the basket in an in-person meeting. If you are not in Merida, you can arrange to transfer a contribution to a willing local meeting attendee. Most use PayPal or Venmo for these transfers. Local attendees willing to receive a contribution, please raise your hand. Thank you - you can connect through the Chat feature to coordinate the next step.
18. At the end of the meeting: If you did not have an opportunity to share during the meeting, please reach out to any of us. Our group is always available to you.
19. I have asked _____ to please read a vision for you from our text.
20. Thanks, everyone. Please ensure your microphone is muted, and we will close with the Serenity Prayer.
